

Extra Point Club STANDING RULES

1. The Extra Point Club shall not endorse any political party or any candidate for political office. Any person running for political office who attends an Extra Point Club Function will be introduced as any other guest; i.e. by his or her given name.
2. Only the President or a person designated by her shall be the liaison between the Extra Point Club and the Athletic Department, Boosters and University.
3. Members must confirm their luncheon attendance no later than noon on Monday prior to the Friday meeting whether or not they plan to attend and if they are bringing a guest. If you do not respond with a “yes” response, you will be considered a “no.” A member or guest reservation which is not cancelled by noon on the Monday before the meeting shall result in the member being assessed the cost of the lunch or lunches.
4. Any property belonging to the Extra Point Club shall be returned to the Properties Chairman immediately following the completion of a project.
5. The President’s gavel, which is the property of the Extra Point Club, shall pass from year to year to the next succeeding President.
6. Provisional Members who cannot meet the six (6) meeting attendance requirement due to work schedule related reasons; i.e. school teachers, shift nurses, may request a waiver of this requirement in writing to the Executive Board for approval.
7. All officers of the Extra Point Club shall attend all major functions or activities sponsored by the Club.
8. If a check is returned for insufficient funds, the member will be required to pay her debt in cash and be responsible for all costs incurred by the club.
9. The Extra Point Club newsletter should be distributed prior to the business meeting.
10. The Sunshine Committee Chairman will send sympathy, get well and congratulatory cards, as well as coordinate meals for members, as appropriate.
11. The Board may approve non-budgeted expenditures as needed, not to exceed $300.00, without the approval of the membership.
12. The Board of Directors will set a price greater than the member price for a guest attending the business meeting where Coach Bowden is the guest speaker.
